

Yongwoo Lee MD.

Board-certified Plastic Surgeon

Dr. Yongwoo Lee is a board-certified plastic surgeon with an international academic foundation and university hospital training. He studied Brain, Behavior and Cognitive Science at the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor before earning his medical degree at Pusan National University College of Medicine. He completed his full surgical training - internship, residency, fellowship, and clinical professorship - within the Department of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery at Pusan National University Hospital. His clinical specialties include facelift, blepharoplasty, liposuction, body contouring, and non-surgical treatments including injectables, thread lifting, and laser therapy.

Specialized in

- Facial Rejuvenation
- Blepharoplasty
- Body Contouring

Education

University of Michigan - Ann Arbor, Bachelor of Science

Pusan National University College of Medicine, Master of Medicine

Training & Experience

Pusan National University Hospital, Dept. of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, Internship, Residency & Fellowship

Mendelson Advanced Facial Anatomy Course (MAFAC)

Active Organizations

International Society of Aesthetic Plastic Surgery (ISAPS)

Korean Society of Aesthetic Plastic Surgeons (KSAPS)

Korean Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons (KSPRS)

Korean Cleft Palate Association (KCPA)

Academic Experience

Pusan National University Hospital, Dept. of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, Clinical Professor

Articles

Time-trend analysis of 78 orbicularis oculi myocutaneous flaps in periorbital reconstruction: a single-center retrospective study in South Korea. Archives of Craniofacial Surgery 2025 (Corresponding Author)

Recurrent late seroma after immediate breast reconstruction with latissimus dorsi musculocutaneous flap. Archives of Plastic Surgery 2020 (First Author)

Outcomes of a superiorly-based pharyngeal flap for the correction of velopharyngeal dysfunction. Archives of Plastic Surgery 2020 (First Author)

Comparison of facial proportions between Eastern and Western. Archives of Plastic Surgery 2020 (First Author)

Merkel cell carcinoma: A series of seven cases. Archives of Plastic Surgery 2019 (First Author)